ARROWHEAD

FOREWORD

Though our high school days are numbered, they are filled with the challenges of our future. A complete high school education prepares students for the responsibilities they will assume as both leaders and participants.

At O.F.H. We Develop Mentally, Physically

By concentrated study, we develop our minds to prepare for our impending individual careers.

Through experimentation, we soon realize that chemicals, as well as life, will better serve mankind if formulated and used in the proper perspective.

Realizing the importance of those long hours of practice, the band continually shows progress in its many school functions.

And Socially Through Active Participation And

After the physical exertion of competition is over, the athletes mature further by attending an athletic banquet.

Our behavior at school is just as important, if not more important, than our sportsmanship at our athletic competitions. Here we learn to support the best interests of our school by setting the example for others to follow.

DEDICATED LEADERSHIP

An adult leader imparts principles of human relationships and democratic behavior to student leaders who in turn practice these principles and instruct other students in their use.

Teachers know students as individuals and provide assistance for class members who need it.

Our leaders impart wisdom, guide our development, and help us with problems whether they be large or small.

The active and well-informed student of today feels that he owes much to the experience which was obtained during his high school years. This experience is his only if he has confidence in his leadership.

IN DEDICATION

In the three years that she has been here, Mrs. Phyllis Anne Setzer has proved to be a valuable asset to Old Fort School. Mrs. Setzer, as a teacher and a friendly adviser, is always willing to give her time and help whenever needed. Because of her qualities of leadership and understanding, Mrs. Setzer was appointed sponsor of the Senior Class and adviser to both the REDSKIN GAZETTE and the cheerleaders. The variety of activities which characterize Mrs. Setzer's classes presents a challenge to her English students. For these reasons we, the Senior Class of 1967, do dedicate this edition of THE ARROWHEAD to Mrs. Phyllis Anne Setzer.

Displaying surprising abilities as can-can dancers, eight "future bunnies?" entertained a delighted audience.

Long hours of practice enabled the band to introduce many new numbers. Among them were stately marches and patriotic songs typical of the "Gay Nineties."

Parents and Patrons Lead Successful P.T.A. Project

Dressed in colorful costumes and backed by the chorus, the square dancers helped to carry out the title of the program "It Was Then As Now."

Nearly two hundred people of all ages participated in the Fall Festival, one of the biggest entertainment events of the year. The Festival was sponsored by the P.T.A. and proceeds from this event, held each November, are used to help finance worthy projects.

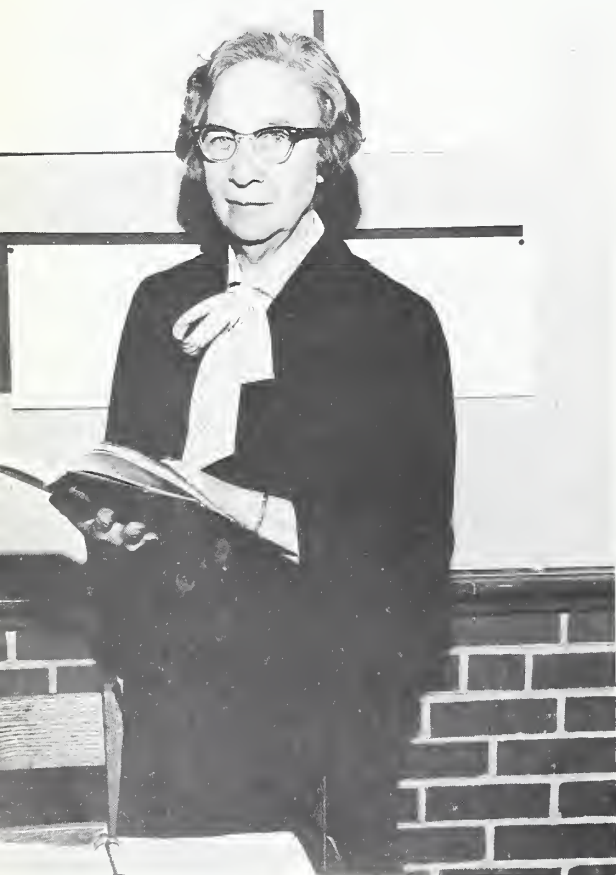

Featuring a Gay Nineties theme and entitled, "It Was Then As Now," the program consisted of a variety of acts, including skits, songs, and dances. Red, White, and Blue colors were used predominately in costumes and setting to help emphasize the patriotic theme.

IN ORGANIZATIONS*

STUDENT COUNCIL

Develops Leaders

Adviser to the Student Council is Mrs. Bula Taylor. Her ideals of character and honesty offer a lifelong pattern for council members to follow as they "strive to promote the improvement of the school spirit, co-operation, humor, loyalty, scholarship, conduct, traffic in the buildings and on the grounds, and the condition of and respect for the grounds and buildings."

Campaign Fervor Develops Spirited Officers

The Student Council was organized to develop self government at Old Fort. Other objectives are to develop and promote worthy traits of character and citizenship and to establish cooperation and discipline.

Meeting every Thursday night, the Student Council discusses problems that occur in the daily school routine, projects that are being considered, and fund raising activities. Mike Elliott leads a discussion concerning a dance that the Student Council will sponsor as a fund raising project.

OLD FORT SCHOOL BAND

Head majorette, Judy Moore, conducts the band.

Drum majorette, Evon Kimbrell, leads the majorettes.

The band officers are Sharon Guthrie, librarian; Dana Allison, secretary; Kaye Elliott, president; Michael Hogan, vice-president; and Rose Burgin, librarian.

Mr. W. C. Rhodes, band instructor, inspires school enthusiasm.

Band Leaders Promote Progress

Under the direction of Mr. Rhodes, the Old Fort School Band enters its fourth year of active participation in school events. The band members wear their new uniforms proudly when performing in concerts, parades, and on the football field. The majorettes add sparkle to the performance with their glittering uniforms and a prance polished at the Baton Clinic at North Carolina State University.

Majorettes Sherry Griggs, Dana Allison, Doris Simmons, Kaye Harris, and Dana Noblitt stand in position to "The Star Spangled Banner."

OFFICERS: Dean Thomason, president; Ronald Painter, vice-president; Loretta Evans, secretary-treasurer; Roger Souther, program chairman.

BETA CLUB

Selected on the basis of their academic achievements and leadership were the 27 members of the Beta Club. The objective of the club is to emphasize the scholastic phase of school life. To maintain the trophies and display cases is their main project this year.

Mrs. Martha Fender sponsors the Beta Club

INTERACT CLUB

Interact Club Serves School

In order to serve the school and community, the Interact Club performs many services. The aim of improving school spirit by improving school facilities was carried out by the members who refinished the gym floor, built outdoor basketball goals, and kept an athletic bulletin board as a few of their activities.

OFFICERS: Billy Early, secretary-treasurer; Michael Hogan, vice-president; David Rhinehardt, president.

F.T.A.

Awards Scholarship

The Future Teachers of America Club is one of the most active groups in our school. Each year the club awards $100 in scholarships to members who are planning to become teachers. Club members gain knowledge and experience by serving as teacher's aides.

The officers work industriously with the members and sponsor for the benefit of their club. They are Elizabeth Knupp, president; Jo Ann Lunsford, vice-president; Loretta Freeman, secretary-treasurer; Gayle Stevens, reporter; and Robin Snyder, historian.

Mrs. Yvonne Lewis sponsors the F.T.A.

Sadie Hawkins' Day was met with an enthusiastic display of Old Fort "spirit." Culminating the day's activities was a dance to the music of "The Jesters."

Large F.T.A. Club has 44 members.

Miss Marie Daves-
Sponsor and Librarian

The Librarians' Club is composed of students who work in the elementary or high school library. The club works to promote greater interest in the library through exhibits, bulletin boards, and displays. Trips to various type of libraries are also among its activities.

STUDENT AIDES Gain Practical Experience

Senior Roger Souther assumes the two-fold task of "bank messenger" and "mailman".

Also helping our secretary do vital office work are Nancy Gilliland, Phyllis Raffield, Viola Effler, Nina Grant, Linda Moore, Karen Gainey, and Phyllis White.

Our school buses travel 294 miles daily and transport nearly 700 pupils. Student drivers receive awards based upon a total of seven months safe driving per year. The awards are presented in the spring by Principal P. W. Greer. Driving buses this year are Cynthia Tilson, Merrill Davis, Ronald Painter, Carolyn Smith, Johnny Brown, Stephen Painter, Fred Burgin, Everett Davis, Wayne Lytle, and Terry Frick. Fred Burgin and Ronald Painter will receive two-year safety awards.

An assortment of audio-visual aids requires expert care and maintenance. Mr. Donald Dobson adjusts a film projector to insure efficient operation.

Mr. Dobson teaches Roy Walker and other boys how to operate equipment and to make minor repairs.

THE ARROWHEAD STAFF

The nearly impossible task of compiling the unforgettable memories of a school year into one book was given to the members of the annual staff. After working as a team under pressure for seemingly days without end, soliciting advertisements, arranging schedules, meeting deadlines, writing captions, organizing and reorganizing, we have completed a book that we feel is worthy of our goals and anticipations, and one that will meet the high standards that the student body has come to expect. The members of the staff believe that the students and faculty will be as proud of this 1967 Arrowhead as we are.

Striving to produce a prize-winning annual is Gayle Stevens, editor of this edition of the Arrowhead.

Typists: Brenda Banner, Mary Davis, and Roberta Myers.

Photographers: John Lipe and Mike Christawn.

Le Cercle Francais

Although his schedule keeps him quite busy, Mr. Charles Lewis never fails to take time out for his duties as French Club sponsor.

Under the leadership of Terry Frick, president; Ronnie Condrey, vice-president; Billy Early, treasurer; Nancy Ramsey, secretary; the members are busy making plans for a dance to be held at the end of school to raise money for their projects.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

F.F.A. Has Large Membership

The F.F.A. has undertaken a variety of activities this year. One of their projects is to make and sell mail box posts. The proceeds will help finance other club projects. To develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship is the club's objective.

SPONSOR: Mr. Donald Anderson

OFFICERS: Jerry Harris, vice-president; Dale Gilliam, treasurer; Dan Grindstaff, reporter; Wayne Lytle, secretary; Larry Burgin, sentinel; Wade Walker, president.

SPONSOR: Mrs. Sue
Glovier

OFFICERS: Carole Allison, president; Linda Edney, vice-president; Glenna Allison, secretary; Revonda Robinson, treasurer; Debbie Johnson, reporter; Candie Allison, parliamentarian.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

"We are the builders of homes."

With a larger membership than usual this year, the F.H.A. undertook several projects. A favorite activity in December was preparing fruit baskets for the sick. Many of the 46 members attended the state convention in Raleigh.

Mrs. Phyllis Setzer sponsors the club and oversees each edition of the school paper.

REDSKINS REBUILD THIS YEAR

Football Team Has New Coach

The Old Fort football team under the leadership of Coach F. Watkins and assistant K. Griffin, achieved their best conference standings in five years with 3-2-1 record. Despite early seasonal injuries and losses, the Redskins laid the foundation for an expanding football program at Old Fort.

Homecoming Queen-Brenda Bartlett

Leading the parade through town were high stepping majorettes. The big turnout was evidence that the town was behind the boys all the way.

H O M E

In anticipation of the exciting Homecoming activities, the student body selected the queen and her court to be honored at half-time. The game was hard fought with spirited action and excitement. Old Fort lost to Christ School with a score of 12-0. At the dance held after the game, spirits were high despite the loss.

Redskins Dominate Skyline Conference And Place

Many things pointed to a lean year for the Redskins in 1966-67. The number one problem was the fact that Old Fort had lost all guards and had only two returning experienced players, co-captains David Rhinehardt and Wayne McCauley. The number six man on the District 6 champions of 1965-66, Robert Hartwell, severely injured both ankles and was seriously handicapped this season. Duke Logan, a star at Mt. View, and counted on as a starter for the Skins missed out on early practice with a broken thumb. Adding pres-

Baseball Team Plays

In District Finals

The battery of Wayne McCauley and John Lipe rallied the Redskins to a successful year in 1966. Outstanding players, Mike Elliott and Robert Hartwell, added action and strength to the team. Having a seasonal record of ten wins and four losses in 1966, the Redskins participated in the state finals, representing McDowell County. With the hopes of new lights for the baseball field, home games are planned to be played at night. The highlight of last year was a 1-0 victory over Salem in the state play-offs. Wayne McCauley pitched a victory over Salem's Rick Steiner. Leading Redskin hitter and star catcher, John Lipe, made the key play of the game when he picked the potential leading run off third base in the seventh inning. The Redskins scored with two out in the last inning.

Working with the athletic activities, Coach Ken Griffin has led the boys to the district and state play-offs in both baseball and basketball. The Redskins' top baseball stars, Mike Elliott, John Lipe, Wayne McCauley, and Robert Hartwell agree that practice, leadership, and co-operation make a winning team.

LEADERS

ADMINISTRATION

Capable Leadership Inspires Continuous Growth At O.F.H.S.

Under the valuable leadership of our principal, Mr. P. W. Greer, our school has gone through its greatest period of expansion. New buildings, additional sports, and accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools are just a few of the goals which have been accomplished through his leadership.

Behind every smooth running organization there is an efficient secretary. Mrs. Margie Thomason has the responsibility for keeping up-to-date records and for handling numerous details necessary in a well-run office.

Mr. James R. Washburn serves as both assistant principal and guidance counselor. His primary objective is to aid the students with their educational, vocational, and personal problems. He not only assists the students in many ways, but he also helps faculty members locate needed materials.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Help Students Fit Into Our Democratic Way Of Life

The Social Studies Department strives to preserve our American heritage. Teaching individuality of thought, expression, and action, plus stressing the need of a united people in a democracy are the goals of this department. The chief objective of the department is to prepare the student of today for the role of leader of tomorrow.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores find themselves well-established in high school. Participation in sports and club projects consume many out-of-school hours. The transition from tenth graders to eleventh graders has an upsetting effect on many. As usual scholars are seen carrying home biology presents a first experience in dissecting. As sophomores gain experience in the Student Council, acting as class officers, and performing on various committees

JUNIORS

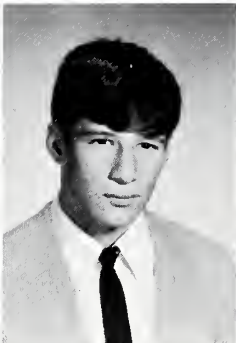

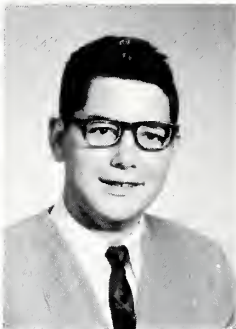

Progress in education and crowded conditions in colleges and trade schools force Juniors to begin some actions formerly restricted to Seniors. For instance, for the first time the Junior class attended the College Day Program. In addition to ordering class rings, many Juniors are investigating plans for their futures.

SECOND ROW: Mrs. Corine Setzer, Mrs. Ethel White, and Blaine Moore.

Non-Teaching Personnel Are A Vital Part Of An Accredited School

CUSTODIANS

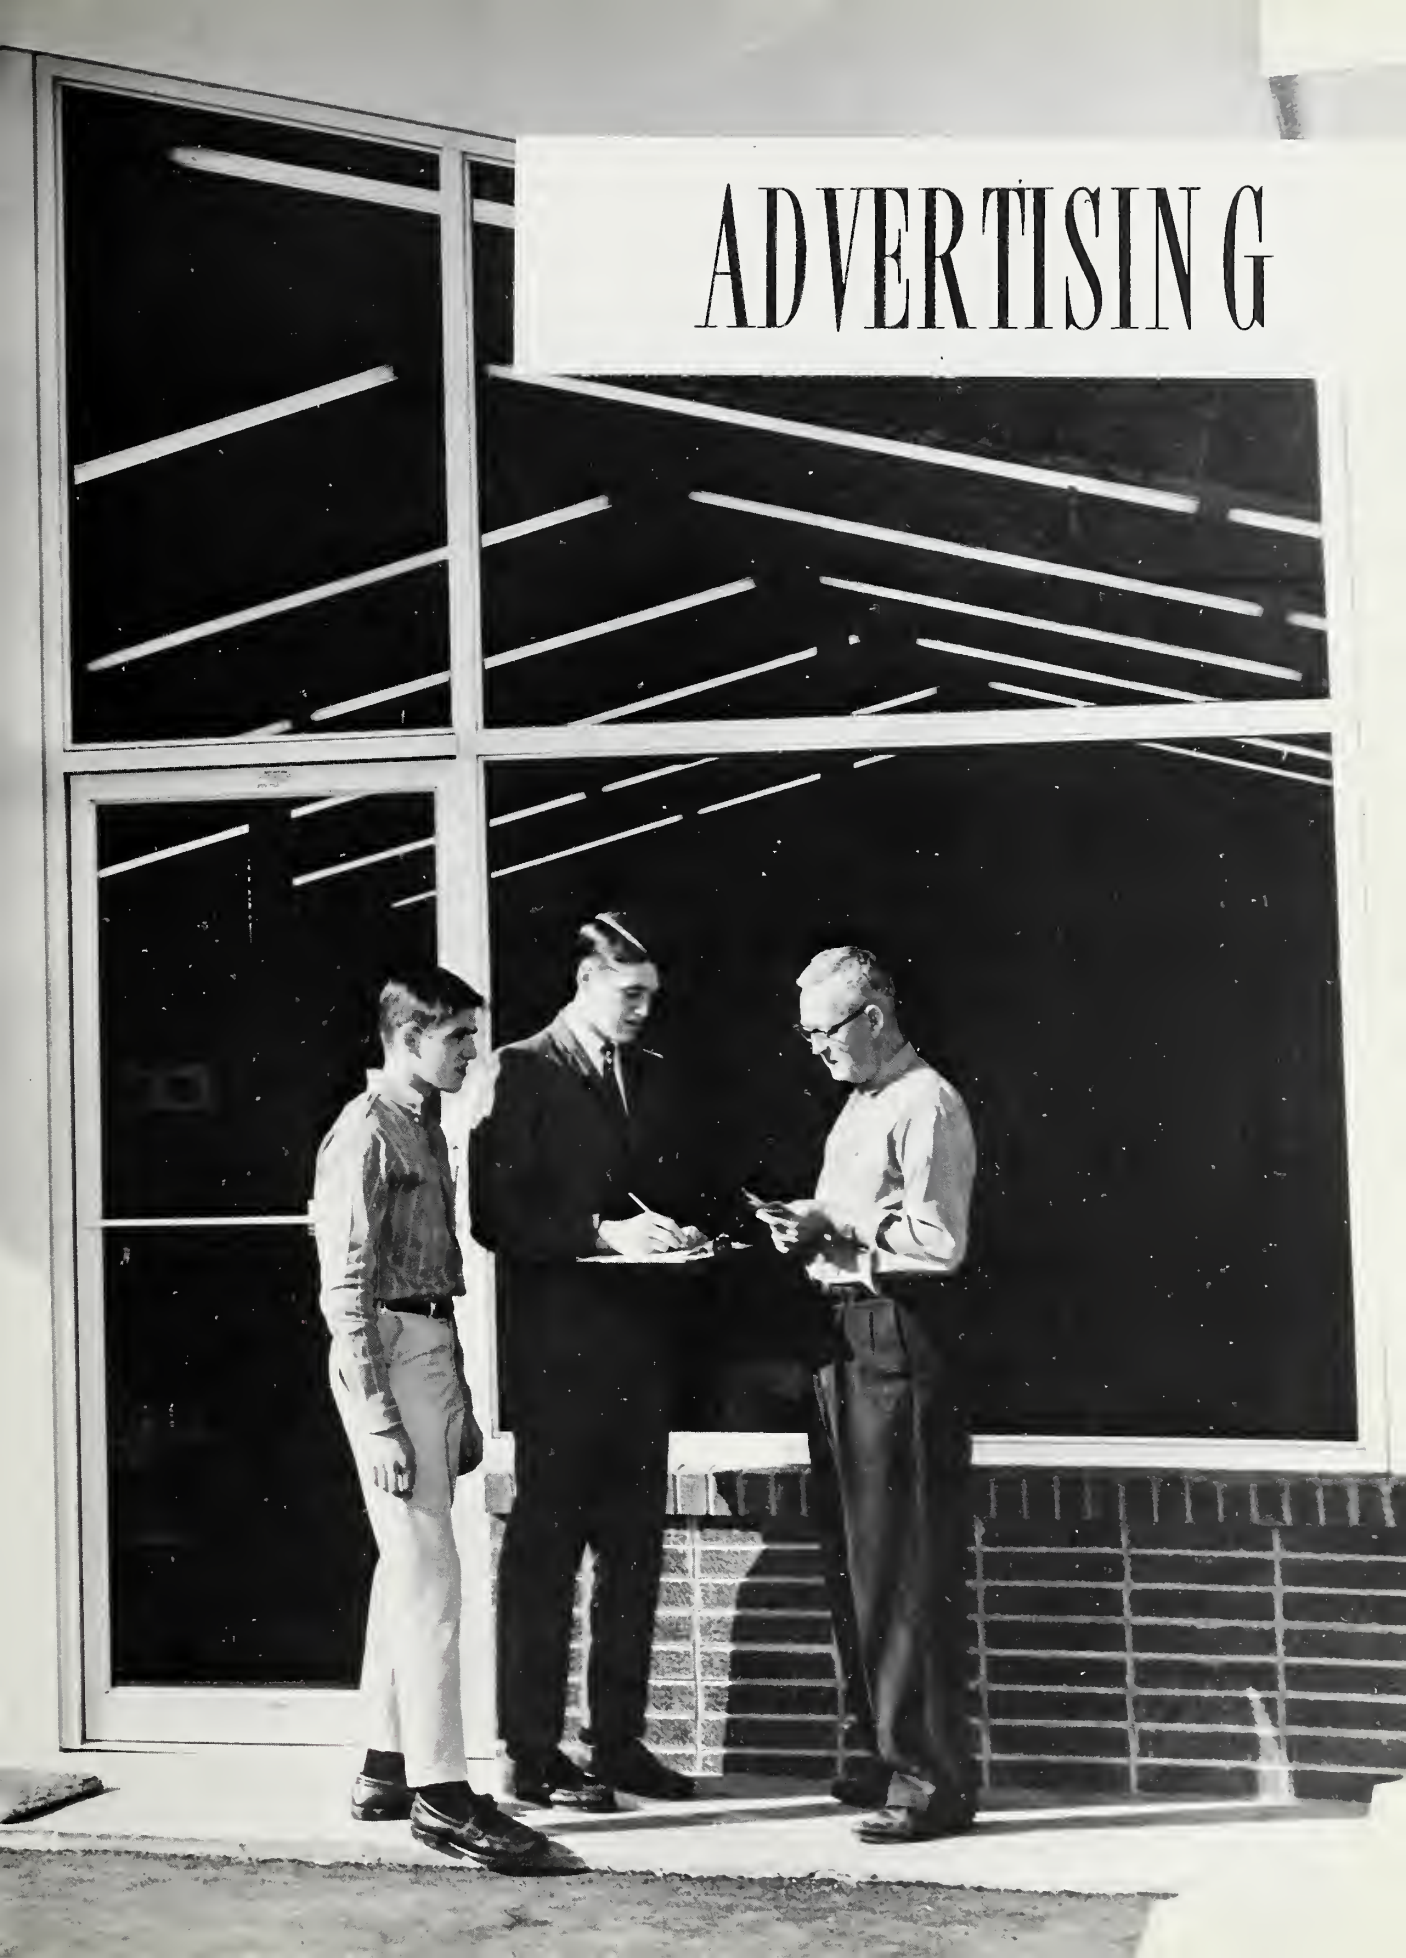

Clean and attractive buildings promote pride and encourage the growth of school spirit among students. Mrs. Australia Lytle and Mrs. Frances Manley undertake the enormous task of keeping buildings pleasant.

Mr. Charles Rumfelt, responsible for general upkeep and a multitude of odd jobs, has proven himself a valuable asset to the school.
